

Anlagenapparat „Empirische Studie“

zur Zulassungsarbeit

*„Konstruktion von Erinnerung: Britischer Remembrance Sunday.
Royal British Legion, Schulen und Universitäten im Vergleich“*

von Daniel Schumacher

INHALTSVERZEICHNIS

Fragebögen Whitgift School	1
Fragebögen St Mary's High School	32
Fragebögen Tomlinscote School	107
Fragebögen University College London	125
Fragebögen University of Nottingham	154

Signaturen-Legende:

WS: Whitgift School

SM: St Mary's High School

TS: Tomlinscote School

UCL: University College London

UN: University of Nottingham

07: 2007

b: britisch

nb: nicht-britisch

m: männlich

f: weiblich

WS07-bm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	School pupil	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World war 1

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The people ~~thought~~ who fought in the war and died

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

We have a service at school

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

My family who ^{are related to} someone who has died and was a veteran

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

They saved Europe and England

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

English

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm02

WS07-bm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student / Pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
_____ World war 1 _____
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
_____ People who have died in all wars _____
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
_____ ~~no~~ sometimes watch yes I do _____
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
_____ The british legion _____
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
_____ The poppy of gladder yields _____
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
_____ so we do not forget them _____
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
_____ It is part of all the British colonies that have taken part in wars _____

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm03

WS07 - bm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1 and World War 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I reckon it is a good idea because it gives us time to think about people who gave their lives fighting for their country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Giving money to charities.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
—
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
—
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
For every nation.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm04

WS07 - bm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

All the people who died in all the wars of the world

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

War victory

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Respect the people who died trying to save us

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

It stands for every nation who participated in the war

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm05

WS07 - bm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The men and women who went to war to fight for England
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes, with school or on TV
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The soldiers who died
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
A commemoration for the soldiers
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
In the moment of silence
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think of all people who died

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm06

WS07 - bm06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

The second world war

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

I think that it ^{would be} ~~was~~ a special day and I think it is a good thing

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes, the farfield halls and school

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

I am supporting

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

It stands for the fighting on a particular field in the second world war

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think it is more English than other countries

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm07

WS07 - bm07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

world war II

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes Don't no no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The people who gave their lives in the great wars and still do give their lives for their country

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

the world war veterans.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

stands for patriotism

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

To show that we appreciated what they have done to keep us in a free country.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

No, it's for English people and people who care about the dead people.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm08

WS07 - bm08

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: student

Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1st world war
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Happy that all of them served
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
People whose family was then apart in the war.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Where the war was (in the poppy field).
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Respect
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think it is a day that can include all nations in the war

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm09

WS07 - bm09

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality: <input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex: <input checked="" type="radio"/> male <input type="radio"/> female
Occupation: Student	Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Being happy about them surviving the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
People who have been affected by the wars
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
For the poppies that grew on Gallander's field
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
To see how brave they were in the war
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
All nation involved in the war

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm10

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	17

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war One
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
All of the people who have lost their lives permanently fighting for their countries defence.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes, I watch them and my/their certain relatives go.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
A charity who give support to people in war and the families of injured or deceased people who lost their lives in war.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The ~~memory~~ war people who lost their lives in war.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
To remember and respect those who lost their life for other people and their country.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is a day for all nations who support their ~~own~~ own country in war and especially those who are fighting now or were in the World war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm11

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07-bm11

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The lives of the innocent dead and the soldiers that protected England
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
I don't know but I would like it to go to poor children
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The poppies that grow on the graves of the soldiers
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
It is mourning the dead,
They protected us by giving their lives.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is for all nations

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 12

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War II

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

~~No~~ Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The war and my grand father

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The people who have died in the war

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

The fought for our country so we should pay respect

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Other nations: Such as America, Germany, France and England

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm13

10sin Akingbolagan

WS07 - bm 13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: Black British female
Occupation: Student Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

Second

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The soldiers who gave their lives for so we could live in peace in WWI WWII & the war in Iraq

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes I do

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The ~~to~~ government so they can treat soldiers

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

All the people that died in the war

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Because these soldiers have died for us so we should give back to them

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

It is world wide mainly the G8 countries

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm14

WS07 - bm 14

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Having a minute of silence at a war memorial.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Yes
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
All the people who died before us
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
11:00 on the 11th day Nov
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Others: France, Spain, Poland, Japan

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm15

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 15

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
Second World War
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The death of the soldiers which gave their lives for their country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
The things done at school.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
I do not know...
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The flowers that grew on the ground of the battle field
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Because without them life would be very different.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It could be for all nations which participated in the war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm16

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 16

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British / Pakistan	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
WW2 remembering soldiers
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Families who lost people in WW2
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The soldiers who died in WW2
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
We honour their bravery in helping us
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
For others like France, America, Australia and Poland

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm17

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: Student Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

I think that on Remembrance Sunday you commemorate all the soldiers worldwide that have participated in WWI & II.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

You I am supporting the Poppy Appeal

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

I think that it is vital to commemorate people who died in the wars. It is important to commemorate people previously before us who have made the effort to fight for their people and country.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as sth. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think that Remembrance Sunday is a day for all nations: USA Oriental Countries and should be celebrated worldwide.
Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm18

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 18

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

First World War

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Grave as you are respecting the dead who fought to keep England

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Poppy Foundation

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

It stands for the poppies that grew on the battle field of the war.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

They risked their lives to help our stay what we are.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

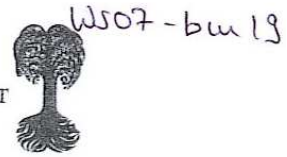

I would think it is English or not many other countries remember them

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm19

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> male
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> other: british afrocaribbean		<input type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
Worldwar 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I am not sure I have not really got an opinion
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I in my school
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
My School
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
blood I guess
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I dont really know I have not thought about it.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I dont know but I guess every country should have one but for their own remembrance.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm20

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 20

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

I have no idea!

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The death of the people who gave their lives away for their country.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yeh, the stuff we do at school

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

I don't know!

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

I don't know!

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

I feel very sorry for them and wish they were alive today.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think it should be for all the countries that died in the war where people got killed

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm21

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 21

Ayman
@2007

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: student
Age: 13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no probably not
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no probably not
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Remembrance day is an important day to remember - remember people.
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes some most no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
People who fought for their country.
- What does the red poppy stand for?
Poppies grew on the field where the war took place
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I feel the point to remember them so we can support their bravery.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think ~~only~~ the English celebrate this day.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm22

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 22

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The death of the soldiers that fought for England.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

I do not know.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

There were the flowers in the battlefield.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

We are appreciating their bravery.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

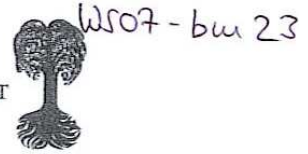

No, it seems ~~to~~ to be English as they did well in the war and ^{they} want to remember.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm23

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1st world war
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The pe soldiers who have died in wars in the past and even now in Iraq
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
who the money goes to / don't know
- What does the red poppy stand for?
people who have died
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
No really
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
typically English.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm24

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm24

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
2nd World War
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
In my opinion it would be the service people gave. Also those who died for there country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
At school. Yes.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The relitaves and people still fighting.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The poppys from flanders field.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
showing that you care. Also that you show your thanks.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
For other nations. - Every nation that took part in both wars.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-bm25

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - bm 25

Nationality: British other: _____
Sex: male female
Occupation: _____ Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I think it is a great honour to be one because they fight for their country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Sometimes yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people that fight in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
death in Flanders field.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Showing that you care. Also that you show your thanks.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
it is a day for english because it was England against Germany

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-nbm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - nbm0

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: Ghana and England female
Occupation: _____ Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
All the people who gave their lives for their country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes At School
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Yes
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
the poppies on the fields were the ~~the~~ war was ~~the~~
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
It's very important to think about the fallen soldiers and their families
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Any body who knew someone should do this no matter where they are from.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-nbm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07-nbm02

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Nigerian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student Pupil	Age:	12

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
I would associate with war world 1 and 2
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes.
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

- What does the red poppy stand for?
The red poppy stands for all the people who died in WWI
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is for other nations because

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-nbm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07-nbm03

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Pupil	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

charities and families who lost members in the wars.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

Peace and soldiers

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

so that you can remember and respect those who were in the war.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I don't think so

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-nbm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07-nbm04

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Indian		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	School Pupil	Age:	12 years

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Remembering those who lost their lives while fighting for the army, navy or RAF in the World Wars.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Sometimes: in school ceremonies only.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
A charity related to the wars.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Poppies were the most common flower at the time.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
They fought for our country.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yes, it was a world war so all nations.

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-nbm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07 - nbm05

Nationality: British other: Dominican (Caribbean) Sex: male female Occupation: School Pupil Age: 12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The people who fought and died in WWI
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
A charity that helps those that were effected by the First World War
8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Because they died to help and save us
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
English

Thank you very much for your help!!

WS07-nbm06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

WS07-nbm06

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Australian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Pupil	Age:	12

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War One
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Remembering the men and women that have fought for there country. And to pay our respect to them.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people who have fought for there country.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
It stands for war vetrants, In France after the war, red poppies blomed over the battle field.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
The point is that we pay our respects and remember not only who fell, but those soldiers that survived, through combat.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is a day for the world, to remember the people who fought for there country, America, Australia, New Zealand

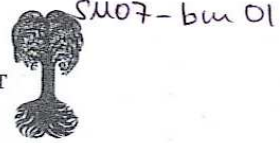

Thank you very much for your help!!

New Zealand

SM07-bm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
First ~~world~~ v world war
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Everyone who lost family members
- What does the red poppy stand for?
One soul
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Freedom and world peace
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
More English than any other nations.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm02

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British ✓	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
NO
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Nope
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
war - killing
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm03

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> male
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> other: Pakistan		<input type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
when people who bugh
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm04

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> male
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> other: German		<input type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
the death of all the soldiers that fought in the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No!
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
all the death soldiers
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
the blood of the soldiers
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm05

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> male
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> other: Half Nigerian and Half British		<input type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Undergraduate student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World war II

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

When people who fought in the world wars are remembered.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes, sometimes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The people

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm06

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: _____ Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

The First World War

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The remembrance of the people that died for the country

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes I do

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

It is for everyone at war and their so families.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The red poppy stands for the blood

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

The point is they helped us and we have to appreciate them for putting their lives on the line for us.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think it is both because it was the English and if we were captured other poor countries could not come here to start-a-fresh for instance Sierra Leone
Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm07

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	_____	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm08

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm08

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War One.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
People are remembering the soldiers that died and got injured and the people that support them.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Do not really. Just went church.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Each soul and celebrating people that died in the war.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Each soul that died.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
my point is that you have to be thankful for the soldiers that died for us and remembering.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
As a typically ceremony that people that passed away

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm09

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm 09

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: British		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
I associate the red poppy for World War 1
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
To remember all the soldiers that died in World War 1
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The families that lost relatives in the war
- What does the red poppy stand for?
Where they had the war poppy where well known to be grown there.
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Because they helped the people of today world to have freedom.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I would say it's a day for other nations.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm1

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

you remember all the people that died in the war

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

yes, when I go church with my family

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes sometimes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

charity and help the people who got injured and need more money

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

each fatal repentance each soul that died

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

English, France, Belgium,

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm11

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm1

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: ~~French~~ female
Occupation: student Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
world war 1 and world war 11
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
when people remember about people in the war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Sometimes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy? ^{their money}
Everyone ~~Everyone~~ who died in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
it stands for ~~the~~ soldiers that died in the war
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
the soldiers fought for died for Freedom.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think other nations celebrate aswell because they were part in the wars, like France, germany Britain, Belgium, Austria
Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm12

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: Go to school

Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes i don't know no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes i don't know no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
To remember the people that died in the war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I don't mind watching it.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes sometimes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
You are supporting the ~~rememb~~ ~~soldiers~~ soldiers that fought in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm 13

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The people that died in the wars
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The ~~foreign~~ people who are still alive from the world wars.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
There's a lot of speaking German.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
No

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm14

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm14

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Im doing remembrance parade because of my grand parents fighting and all the fallen soldiers
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I do a parade for the Army cadets / Blues and royals
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
all those who died in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
a remembrance for Flanders fields in world war 1
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I think that you could give at least 1 day of your life to commemorate those in the war
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think it is a remembrance for all nations like Germans, French, austria hungary and england

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm15

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm 15

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	school	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1 W. W
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The second world war more than the 1st world war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes! at church we had 2 minutes silence
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Nothing, its just a symbol of Gracious.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
they grow after the war on the battlefield.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
that if ~~you~~ the people fought
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Russia, America, France and Italy

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm16

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm 16

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	_____	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
Worldwar 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
all the people that have died in the WW2
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people that are still alive from WW1
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The people that died in WW2
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
They helped is saving our country from being taken over by German
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yes, Germany, America, France,

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm17

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm17

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I think it is about and respectful
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the people who fought in the wars
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The people who died and fought in the war
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Respect
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
a day for nations who help the british and the british

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm18

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm18

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
the soldiers and any one involved who had died in the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No, I do not
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the people who have died in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
remembrance
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
they died defending their country
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is also a day for other nations too like America I think

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm19

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm19

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
The Second world war
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Those that have died
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Those who have died
- What does the red poppy stand for?
remembrance / memory
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
To remember them because they were good citizens and patriot of their country
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm20

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm2

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student.	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WWII
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The thing which is being remembered on remembrance day is those soldiers who died.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I give a 2 minute silence and watch the ceremonies on the T.V.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people who gave there lives in the WWII
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
It stands for the people died in the war.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
The thing I see in it is if it wasn't for them England would have been invaded but the soldiers protected this country.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is also for other nations people also died fighting for other countries as well.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm21

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bm

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World war I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

people are remembering the soldiers which died fighting in the world war to protect our country

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes I did watch the ceremonies

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

we are supporting the soldiers or charity

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

red poppy means the soldiers which fought in the war

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

we are commemorating for those who died because to protect our country and giving us freedom

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

As a typically ~~English~~ ^{Nation} ceremony because it was a European war

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm22

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bu

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

First World War

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

the people that got ^{injured} hurt in the war

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

one soul

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

more English than any other nations

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bm23

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bm23

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
people are remembered the soldiers who died in the war 1/2
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
NO
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
~~everybody who buys a poppy~~
- What does the red poppy stand for?
every soul that died in the war
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
we are commemorating for those who died because without them we wouldn't be here
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think a lot of countries celebrate it as well

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf24

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-bf 24

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13 yrs

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
to remember all the people who died
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
My parents went to the church to celebrate.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
all of the people who died World War one.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
All the people who died in the World War one.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Yes we should remember the people who died.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think it is a day to remember every one who died, not just british nationality.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf25

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 25

Nationality: British
 other: scottish
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: school
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

first world war.

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

that its a nice way to remember
people who have died

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

no

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

the people who have died

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

it stands for the poppy's that grew in the fields after the war.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Just helps people over come their loss.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

its a typical english day.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf26

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 26

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The Soldiers
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
fields in the first world war
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf27

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 27

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13yrs

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
world war 1 (one)
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
All of the people who died during the world war 1 and 2
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes and I went to church to celebrate Remembrance Sunday.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
All of the people who died in the world war one.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
it represents all of the people who died in the war.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I think we should remember all of the people who died in the world war.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think it is a day to remember everyone who died and not just the english every nationality.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf28

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 28

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	_____	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
People that died in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
People that died in the First world war 1st Q.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf29

LA

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 29

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
On remembrance Sunday we celebrate peoples deaths that fought for us and that why we wear a poppy
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes I do. I wear a poppy
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the people that died in the war (the family of peoples that died)
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
each petal stands for a soldiers that died.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
The point of celebrating poppy day is to thank the soldiers that fought for us and died.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think that's it's both nations but very less other nation and mostly English.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf30

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 30

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: _____ Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
my opinion is to thank those who helped fight for our country because what they done was great.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no not very often
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
my great-grandfather
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
to remember the social people that have died
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I think what they done was good so people should remember them in a good way and thank them.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yes I do regard remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf31

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 31

Nationality: British
 other: Asian
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war one because it was a big war many died.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your ^{grand} / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
we are thanking them for our future for giving us a better life.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes on tv.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the families of soldiers who died and the soldiers who are still alive and support them for there health to be better.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
for the souls of soldiers that died.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
They died for us for our good future which we are living in now.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is for other Nations, too, because many cultures were in the war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf32

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 32

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
people who died in the previous wars
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Don't know
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Don't know
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Don't know
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Don't know

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf33

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 33

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
The first world war
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
People who died in the wars.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Dont know
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Dont know
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Dont know
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I dont know. I have no idea.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf34

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 34

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	_____	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I think that remembrance Sunday isn't just for people who fought in WW1 & 2 but for any soldiers who have died or fought in wars.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I usually watch remembrance Sunday on TV.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
I think it's a soldiers fund.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Hope
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
You are remembering all those people who fought for our country and saved us to today.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think it may be specifically for Britain but possibly for other nations.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf35

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 35

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Soldiers that lost their lives in the world wars.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I do 1mins silence
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
(I do wear a poppy)
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
lost one's.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-bf36

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - bf 36

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
First ~~and~~ World War and second
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
All the people that died in the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Not really
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the soldiers that died in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
sign of remembrance
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
peace
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
other nations

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

Ibra,
SM07-nbm01

Nationality: British other: African
Sex: male female
Occupation: Student Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war one.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I think it's a good idea to remember the dead ~~the~~ people.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The dead people.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Remembrance day.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
They tried to save their country.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yeah, because other countries helped out in the war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm02

Nationality: British other: Poland

Sex: male female

Occupation: _____ Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

The First world war

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

I think is good to remember this day and everyone should know that I think

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The families that lost their kids and husbands and wives in first world war

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

For a First world war when England won

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Because they died for our future and our freedom.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm03

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Ghanaian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I think it means is for the soldiers who are dying in wars
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
I support people who are suffering in wars
- What does the red poppy stand for?
the blood shed
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
they tried to save their country
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I think it's for other countries such as Ghana, Nigeria, Russia, Germany, France and Italy and United States.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm04

Nationality: British
 other: Pakistani

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: Student

Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
for those who died in world war 1 and 2
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
victims and soldiers of WW1
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
don't know
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Protecting the country
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
for all those who participate in WW1

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm05

Nationality: British Latvian
 other: Russian
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
~~The First World War~~ the World War two
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
~~The Russian Revolution~~
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people who suffered from the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The red poppies used to grow on the trenches
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
So that another revolution doesn't start, and people remember how dreadful it was
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
of the Russian Revolution

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm06

Nationality: British other: German Sex: male female
Occupation: student Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW2 - world war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The fact that young man died for our sake
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No, but we had a minute of silence, and went to church.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
I support both sides Germans and English
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The Field of Flanders
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
We show respect to the young^{men} who died for us.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
They are for every country because they loved, and died for us and it.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm07

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> male
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> other: Columbian		<input type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
to respect those who died and suffered during the war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The Ex-Servicemen
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The poppies that grow on the field of Flanders.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
To make sure they are not forgotten for their sacrifice
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Other nations, all of those who participated in the War.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm08

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm08

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British black-African	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Congo		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	School/Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
~~The 1st war~~ world war II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
i think it is a honour to
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm09

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm09

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Nigerian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I think it is good idea to remember the dead people who fought to defend their country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes I do but not every day.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people who was in the war (dead people).
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Remembrance day
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
They tried to defend their country.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I would say it is a day for other nations like African countries.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm10

Nationality: British other: Jamaican Sex: male female Occupation: ~~Football~~ Student Age: 13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1 and 2
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No not really
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
to the people who died and are families remembering the heroes and poor chollity
- What does the red poppy stand for?
For the heroes of the war
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm11

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm11

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Rehih		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	_____	Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No not really
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

- What does the red poppy stand for?
for poppy of people
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm12

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	_____

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
world war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
is about remembrance day the people that died in the world war 1 or 2
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes I go to church to pray for those that died.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
we are supporting people that get injured and their family
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
the red poppy stand for a soldier that died in the war
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
point I see is to remember them ^{is} that they bring peace to the world
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
yes other nations celebrate as well

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm13

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: liberian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13 yrs

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
War world 1
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
In my own opinion Remembrance Sunday went the people remembrance who died for the country
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes I was choir in hour time
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
every soldier who are in war right now and give supply support of the family and treatment
- What does the red poppy stand for?
for all people who died in war world 1 and #2
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
we fought for us and freedom and our future
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Other nation celebrating it as well

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm14

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm14

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Polish		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?
For peoples who dead in the First and second World War
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm15

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm15

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

Second World War

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes I watch remembrance ceremonies on the TV on this very day

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

I think it is good to remember the dead.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think it is for other nations that fought in the wars for example Germany, Russia, France

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm16

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm 16

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: African		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
No one
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Living
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm17

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm 17

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Nigerian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	114

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The people who died making peace for us.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes on t.v whenever it's on
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The people that died in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

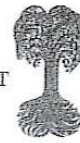

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yes it is typically English

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm18

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm 18

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Ghanian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war II
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
the people who never got their badges for going to war and died
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes on the news
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
People who died in WW II
- What does the red poppy stand for?

- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm19

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm19

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: German/Nigerian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	school	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
2nd
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes sometimes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
various works charity
8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm20

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm20

Nationality: British other: Zimbabwean

Sex: male female

Occupation: Student Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes I go to church
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
For all other nations who fought in the world wars

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm21

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm 21

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Nigerian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	school	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The remembering of all of ~~you~~ the brave soldiers that had fought in the world wars.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

NO

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm22

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm 22

Nationality: British other: Half Pakistani Sex: male female Occupation: Half Spanish / Polish (Polish) Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War 2

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

the death of the soldiers

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No (i go to church)

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

the Government ?? / country ??

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

to realize the sacrifice they made for us

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

for other nations because people from other countries fought to

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm23

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm23

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Mauritian		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War 2 (WW2)

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The death of the soldiers who sacrificed their life fighting for their country.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes, I watch the remembrance ceremony.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Our country

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

Commemorating the death of the soldiers during the war.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

They were soldiers who gave up their lives for their ~~own~~ country.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

It is a day for other nations.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm24

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbm 24

Nationality: British
 other: Ghanaian/Dutch
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War II (1939-1945)

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Remembering the soldiers dying in every war of the 20th / 21st century

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

~~My~~ Our country (The current country) take reservations in

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

Commemoration of death of soldiers

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

That they should be known for their gallantry and how brave they were

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

?

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbm25

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbm 25

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Uganda		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 2
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No I don't
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
To remember the people that served ~~the~~ the country and died.
- What does the red poppy stand for?

- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yes It is typically English

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf26

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

3keema
Snypdike
SM07-nbf 26

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Nigeria		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
To remember all does people who ~~had~~ ^{Fight} for us while ~~fighting~~ in world war 1
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
We buy and wear the red poppy flowers
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
All the people who fought in WW1
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Each person that died
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
The ~~of~~ point of it is that we are showing our appreciation and to pray for the souls who died
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I would say it is a day for other nations because they fought with other countries

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf27

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf 27

Nationality: British other: Jamaican & Guyanese Sex: male female
Occupation: Student Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
People who have died.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf28

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf 28

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Ghanaian		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	student	Age:	13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War 2

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes, I watch the ceremony

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Remembering those who died in service to their country

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I regard it for other countries (i.e.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf29

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf 29

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Indian		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	British Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
soldiers that died in the world war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I don't
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf30

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf30

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: German		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Remembrance Sunday to me is a special day dedicated to those who fought for England
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Sometimes I watch it on t.v
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I see the point of appreciating those who fell in the war
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is more like a typical English word.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf31

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf31

Nationality: British other: French Sex: male female
Occupation: Student Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World war 1

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Remember the people that died during the war

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes, I wear a poppy

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

~~Everyone that died in the war for the peace~~
For the family that lost someone

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

~~A person that died during the war~~
1 person that died during the war

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

I think is a way to respect them and thanking them

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think is a day for every nations

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf32

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf32

Nationality: British
 other: Ghanian
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1 because I think more people died because of the bombs.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
To remember all those people that died in the war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
You buy a poppy to remember the people that died.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The families that ~~and~~ their dad died in the war or son's died.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
rem for each person that died
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
it respects all the souls that died ~~too~~ for ~~the~~ announce
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
it's not it's respect for every nation.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf33

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf 33

Nationality: British other: Phillipino (Asian) Sex: male female Occupation: student Age: 13 years old

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower? soldiers
World War I and II (all the battles ~~soldiers~~ that died in a war)
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
I thank those brave men who gave up there lives for the people in the future.
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes, I watch it on T.V.
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the people from the war with injuries that will stay with them for life.
- What does the red poppy stand for?
every petal in a poppy stands for every soul lost in the war
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war? soldiers
They died for us, if it weren't for those ~~soldiers~~. I wouldn't be here today. Neither will my mom, dad and sisters.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
this is for other nation aswell Hitler would have killed everyone else if it weren't for those ~~soldiers~~ soldiers you know.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf34

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf34

Nationality: British
 other: Polish

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: Student Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
2nd world war
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Remembering all those people (soldiers) that died in the war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
You buy a poppy
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
I am supporting all the soldiers that died for us and all the families that lost a loved one!!
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
For each person that died during the war.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
It respects all the souls that died for us
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Its a special day for every nation.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf35

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf35

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	BLACK.	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> other:	African-Gibran.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	student.	Age:	14.

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No i don't
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Da soldiers in the war.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
I don't know.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
I don't see any
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It's a typical english thing because no one else really celebrates it.

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf36

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07 - nbf 36

Nationality: British other: British Caribbean Sex: male female Occupation: School Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
The ~~1914~~ WWI.
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No I don't.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
No one.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The remembrance of those that died in the war.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf37

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf37

Nationality: British other: Black Caribbean
Sex: male female
Occupation: Student Caribbean Age: 13

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
being respect ful
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No not really /
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
that fought in the First world
8. What does the red poppy stand for?

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf38

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf38

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	portuges	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other:	portuges		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student.		Age:	13

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1st First world war.
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
NO
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The soldiers of world war I.
- What does the red poppy stand for?
people who died in the first world war.
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Thank you very much for your help!!

SM07-nbf39

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

SM07-nbf39

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: African/latin		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	School Student		Age: _____

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
world war 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
respect that they went to war to fight
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
By watching the news and spending 10 mins of silent
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
To raise money for children in need.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The fields where the soldiers battled in.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It's a typical English day

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 01

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: Student Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WW1

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

All those who fought and died in the all the wars around the world.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The veterans of the wars.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

All those that died in the wars

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

To show respect and thanks for giving them life for the country

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

All those who fought in wars around the world.

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 02

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: _____

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

both

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes

no

Probably

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes

no

Probably

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Lives lost in both world wars

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes

no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

for ~~the~~ the lives lost

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The flowers to grow on the battlefield

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

they would be forgotten otherwise

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

all countries in war

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 03

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: students Age: 24

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

the first world war

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

For the men that gave up their lives ~~for~~ in every war to

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

the ~~the~~ families of the people who died

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The people that died at the Somme

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

To remember how brave the men were who fell

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

other nations england France
Belgium, Poland, Germany, Italy, Austria

Thank you very much for your help!!

Hungary
Japan

TS07-bm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07-bm04

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	owns own business / Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
2nd world war
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The lives lost in the world war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The lives lost and the support armies.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
the poppies were the first flowers to grow
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
because otherwise it would be forgotten
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
English mostly

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 05

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: student

Age: 15 (16 on 1.04.08)

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WW2

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The people who died on the field where the poppies now grow.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

1 minute silence in various places.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The people who survived the war.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The field - people died

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

to celebrate -wure desire of fighting for freedom and how brave they are.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think mainly england by but France as well because thats where the field was.

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07-bm06

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The thousands of people that died in trying to save their country.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Those who survived

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The field where most people died in

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

To celebrate how brave they are.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Other nations too. France.

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 07

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: Paper-boy + Student

Age: 15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WWI
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The people who participated and gave up their lives to help the country win
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Families of Soldiers
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Nothing grew but the poppy ~~was~~ in the battlefields
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Good support for soldiers + families in the war
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
~~the~~ France, Russia, Germany

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm08

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm08

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: student Age: 16

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

it is the remembrance of those that have fallen fighting for our country.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

no

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

soldiers families & who have fallen or lived reason for to. Thank them for their service

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

those who lived or died fighting for us

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

the point that they fell with the passion of protecting our nations from evil for years and years to come.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I believe it concerns all countries which had men that had fallen fighting i.e Germany, France Belgium, Austria etc.

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm09

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 09

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: Student Age: 16

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World war II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The people that fought for our country during wars.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
families of soldiers that die
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Soldiers that died, poppy's grew in their place.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Shows support for troops, gives families a sense of people caring for them.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
No ENGLISH / BRITISH

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 10

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	_____ None Student		Age: _____ 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WWI

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The men who gave their lives to defend their country in all wars

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The Veterans that have survived ^{the wars} ~~the wars~~

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

~~The fields that~~ The fields that the WWI pilot crashed in grew poppies afterwards

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Remembering their sacrifice

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Typically English

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm11

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bm 11

Nationality: British
 other: Irish

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: student

Age: 15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

Both the world wars

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The thousands of soldiers and civilians that have died due to the many wars that have happened

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

no

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Those who have survived the wars

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The fields of battle had poppy poppies that survived where no other plant could ~~survive~~

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

It shows respect to those who fought in the war

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

It is a day for all nations that are affected by war

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bm12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07-bm12

Nationality: British other: _____
Sex: male female
Occupation: student Age: 15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
soldiers who died in the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes. on TV
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
families of dead soldiers from WWI
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Don't know
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Remembering they fought for our freedom
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
All Nations in World War I

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bf13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bf 13

Nationality: British + $\frac{1}{4}$ Scottish
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: student

Age: 14 $\frac{3}{4}$

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no duhno

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Remembered for ^{their} ~~us~~ bravery in the war and participation.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The soldiers

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

They fought in a poppy field?!

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Bravery and remembering them.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

yes english, i don't know why though it seems a British thing.

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bf14

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bf 14

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WW1 but it is to remember all of them

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

I think it is necessary because all the people who died for their country deserved to be remembered.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

~~the war~~ the war fund.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

When the poppies started growing on the fields after the war

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

all nations who have been in war

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bf15

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07-bf15

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: Student Age: 15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War II
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Remembering the brave individuals that lost their lives through fighting for their country.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
I usually watch the remembrance ceremonies.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The soldiers that fought for their country, and those who lost their lives.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Hope and unity.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
So that we can remember those, and thank, who fought for their country and other people; and in the act, lost their lives.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I regard Remembrance Sunday as particularly English, although in general I believe it is a day to remember all people, whatever nationality, who lost their lives through war.
Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bf16

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bf 16

Nationality: British
 other: _____

Sex: male
 female

Occupation: Student Age: 17

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

All of the men that died whilst fighting in the war

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

I watch some of the stuff on TV

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The soldiers wives, children and relatives

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The fields in which the men died and poppies grow

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

I think it's really good because these men did a lot for us so we should remember them.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

All nations because loads of other people died in the war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bf17

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bf 17

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 15

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War 2

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes

no

unsure

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes

no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

All the men who fought within the World Wars.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

NO, or only for a little while

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes

no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Soldiers wives/husband and relatives

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The fields in which the men fought in.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Remembering everything they did for us, how it would be different now if they hadn't have fought.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Other Nations as well, English, French,
German, Italian, Russian and Austria

Thank you very much for your help!!

TS07-bf18

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

TS07 - bf 18

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	14

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 2
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no don't know
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no don't know
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
For all the people who fought in the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The family who's relatives fought in the war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The flower grew in the fields where we fought.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
The people who fought in the war fought for our country with bravery and courage.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I would say it is a day for all nations which fought in the world wars.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bm01

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: student
Age: 20

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Sacrifices of those who have fallen in war. Historical roots.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes, every year. Grandfather key regional member of British Legion.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Ex-soldiers (retirees, war casualties) and especially family of deceased

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

Remembrance of sacrifice

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Support for current soldiers (your sacrifice will not be forgotten), family history (remembering roots), folk/scale of death

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Yes: Although primarily European nations, is easily relatable to people of ALL nations/nationalities

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07 - bm02

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female Occupation: _____
Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

The great war

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Victory, sacrifice

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

formerly in school services

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

nobody veterans & families

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

lost lives

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

remembering achievement, but NO practical or logical point

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

English, but it should include France, Russia, & perhaps also the defeated powers Serbia

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07 - bm03

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: student
Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WWI

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The remembrance of all those who lost their lives defending great Britain

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

To buy a poppy + take a minute's rest?

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

those soldiers in remembrance, their families + current soldiers fighting in wars today?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The displaced poppies in displaced land in the trenches, the displaced beauty.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Never to forget those who died, never to forget the dangers in war.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Typically British.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bm04

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	20

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
The first world war
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The bravery and sacrifice of those who died. Also a recognition of the pointless nature of war
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
veterans organisations / charities
- What does the red poppy stand for?
Remembrance
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
To learn from the past.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
all affected by any conflict

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bm05

Nationality: British Sex: male
 other: _____ female
Occupation: Student Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

First World War

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The suffering and sacrifice of the men who ~~gave their lives~~ fought to protect the country

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Veterans

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The bloodsoaked fields of Flanders

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

To show gratitude and thanks for what they did so that we live in a peaceful environment

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Other nations too such as India, Australia and the other countries from the Commonwealth which contributed troops

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bm06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bm06

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
First World War (1914)
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The sacrifice of all soldiers in all wars.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Not currently, used to.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes I try! no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Charities for war
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
To remember... -> see q. 4
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Respect for the fallen, try to avoid future war.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
No. All nations. Special significance for World War combatants v but skill feel applies to all countries.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf07

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	20

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WWI

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes

no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes

no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

The people who died in ~~the~~ bothth world wars

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes

no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Veterans of the war

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

Those who died

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Yes - they ~~did~~ died a horrible death for us and it's a mark that we respect & appreciate this

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Typically English

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf08

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf08

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: student
Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

1st world war

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no - But Grandmother did.

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Those soldiers who died fighting in war + their families.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

NO.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

For those soldiers who died fighting for Great Britain in WWI.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Just out of respect and acknowledgement for what they did for their country + people who fought for their country + people

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

typically English.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf09

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf09

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female Occupation: _____
Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WW I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

the lives of millions from all countries that died

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

no

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

All soldiers - past + present.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The poppies in the fields after the destruction of the land / trenches.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Respect / admiration

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

All nations + All soldiers who have fought + still are fighting in today's world.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf10

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: STUDENT
Age: 17

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WW1

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes

no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes

no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

THOSE WHO DIED IN THE WORLD WARS

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

NO

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes

no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

RESPECT FOR THOSE WHO RISKED THEIR LIVES

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

APPRECIATING THE SACRIFICES PEOPLE MADE FOR THEIR COUNTRY

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

FOR ALL NATIONS WHICH PARTICIPATED IN THE WAR

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf11

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf 11

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Initially it was just WW1 but now all wars that've been fought / are being fought - all dead lost in the last century!
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
veterans + their families
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
It was the ~~flower~~ ~~the~~ only flower that could grow on the battlefields after WW1.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Honouring those that died so that we have the freedoms + lives that we have today.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Global. Gen. nations I'd 'side' with (so not the ones who're ~~the~~ perhaps committing genocide).

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf12

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	STUDENT	Age:	17

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW1
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The courage of all the people who sacrificed their lives for our liberty
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Sometimes
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Financially, you are supporting veterans of the wars that have the British Army, Navy, Air Force etc have fought
- What does the red poppy stand for?
The blood that was shed by those who sacrificed their lives
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Important to remember why we are able to live in our society which is comparatively so much freer than others
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is a British celebration - Welsh, Scottish, Irish as well as English

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf13

Nationality: <input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex: <input type="radio"/> male <input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation: Student	Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
First World War
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
remembering the lives of those who died.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
4 minute silence, buy a poppy maybe
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes maybe no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
veteran / ex-soldiers
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
blood? the lives of those lost. flower → lives of those who are still here.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
to remember how dreadful war is.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Americans have something similar although I'm not sure. A typically English image is published.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf14

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf 14

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	STUDENT	Age:	18

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
FIRST WORLD WAR
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The lives of the people who served and died for Britain.
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes, I wear a poppy.
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
People who have served in the war who are perhaps injured + their families
- What does the red poppy stand for?
The poppy fields, red represents blood shed
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
To show their work was appreciated.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
British.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf15

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-bf15

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
those who lost their lives in the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the army.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
supporting and respecting those who risk their lives.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
celebrating their bravery in risking their lives for their country.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
typically english.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-bf16

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07 - bf 16

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
all soldiers who died in wars. (WW1, WW2 & wars since)
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Not really unless it is on TV (the parade, but it on then)
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The Charity that looks after veterans & families
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
grew in the field at Flanders. where lots died.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Gratitude for their sacrifice.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Typically English.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbm01

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbm01

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: American		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	21

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The Armistice of World War I
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Veterans
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The blood of the fallen Soldiers
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Remember what they fought and sacrificed for
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
America ~~is~~ celebrates it as Veterans Day for veterans of all wars

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbm02

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbm02

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: German		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
British and allied soldiers who died in WWI and following wars
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Veterans organisations?
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The poppy fields in France during WWI where most fighting took place
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Respect for the dead and the need to pursue peace
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It seems like an English tradition to me.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbm03

Nationality: British other: USA Sex: male female
Occupation: student Age: 21

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WWI

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no ?

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no ? i, maybe.

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

In the USA, Memorial Day: US military casualties

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

N/A in USA

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

N/A in USA.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

- Warning against unnecessary US warfare abroad
- Promoting peace abroad (for above reason).

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I'd say WWI is a tragedy to be remembered by all Europeans, especially conservative ones.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbm04

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbm04

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: French		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
/
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
/
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
In France on the relevant date.
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
/
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
/
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
An important inter-generation and inter-people link.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
So English I do not know much about it.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf05

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: French		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1st World War
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
It is good to remember the past, never forget it but it must not become an obsession
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Families of the First World War veterans
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Flowers on the battlefields on WWI.
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Respect
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Typically English (never heard of it).

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf06

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Bangladeshi		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The lives of all the brave soldiers that fought for our country, and were killed in war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Not really. Dick through channels
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Red Poppy Memorial. Families & members who took part in WW1
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Death
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
They fought for our country & therefore should be remembered & honoured.
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Typically English

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf07

Nationality: British other: Russian
Sex: male female
Occupation: student Age: 19

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1st WW
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The soldiers who sacrificed their lives
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
sometimes, not every year though
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
the relatives of those dead, and the war veterans of still alive
- What does the red poppy stand for?
blood spilled?
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
A reminder of human sacrifice, possible prevention of engaging in another war
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
A British thing to use the Red Poppy.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf08

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf08

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: SWEDISH		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	STUDENT (UNDERGRADUATE)	Age:	21

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The soldiers who died in the war.
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
not entirely sure.
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
don't know
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
-
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
I had not heard of it before moving to England, to me it seems quite English.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf09

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf09

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: U.S.		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	STUDENT	Age:	20

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

~~World War I~~ WORLD WAR II?

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

the people who died in war & people who served

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

no

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

I'm not sure

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

I'm not sure

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

celebrate what they fought for - protecting country & freedom

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

typically English?

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf10

Nationality: British other: American Sex: male female
Occupation: _____ Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WWI
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Some do not celebrate in US
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Grandfather who fought in WWII
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
commemoration for those who lost their lives in world wars
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
honoring those who fought for country (and potentially died)
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Don't celebrate Remembrance Day but Veterans Day and Memorial Day - poppies more prevalent in US during Memorial Day in May

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf11

CL

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf11

Nationality: British other: Belgian
Sex: male female
Occupation: Student Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

all the men (a women) who perished, not only on the battlefield but everywhere in Europe because of the war

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

our soldiers & the families of soldiers that have died

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

the soldiers that have died anonymously

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

not forgetting the war so that it would never happen again

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

I think it is typically British, especially the idea of the red poppy as I had never seen one before it when I was living in Belgium, even though we don't remember the war on that day too

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf12

Nationality: British other: FRENCH Sex: male female
Occupation: STUDENT Age: 21

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

1st WORLD WAR

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

/

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

NO

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

/

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

/

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

TO COMMEMORATE THEIR COURAGE

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

TYPICALLY ENGLISH

Thank you very much for your help!!

UCL07-nbf13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UCL07-nbf13

Nationality:	<input type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> other: Italian		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
First ~~World~~ World War
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The soldiers who died during the First world war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The families
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
The poppies that grew in the fields where the combats took place
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Respect for the families + take a stand against war in general, underline the horror that the trenches in particular were
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
It is typically English

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bm01

Notes

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bm01

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WW2
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
lives of men who died in WW2.
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
English soldier who died in a war
- What does the red poppy stand for?
Flanders Field
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Not forgetting
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
International. All countries that won in the war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bm02

11042

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bm02

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male <input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WW II

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes

no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes

no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Dead people from wars.

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes

no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Charity

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

War

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

? Celebrate winning.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Yes, as we war.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bm03

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07 - bm03

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War One

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

Remembering those who died

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

Charity and those who fought / fight wars

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

Flanders field

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Those who died for their country

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

All nations who fought in WW1 and WW2

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bm04

10772

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07 - bm 04

Nationality: British
 other: _____
Sex: male
 female
Occupation: Student
Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

1st

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes

no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes

no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

All those who fought and died in both World Wars and in any subsequent wars/battles

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

Yes.

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes

no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The British Legion - The money goes to helping former soldiers / army people

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The poppies that grew on Flanders

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Pay respect to all those who fought + died in the wars. We have our freedom and way of life because of their sacrifices

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Remembrance Sunday as it is celebrated in England - Yes, as a concept, it is definitely for other nations especially French + German

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bm05

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07 - bm 05

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The end of WW1
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Royal British Legion
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Poppies growing in Flanders Field
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Gave their lives for us and our freedom
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Yes

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf06

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf06

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WWI
2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The end of the war
5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
NO
6. Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Families of the fallen soldiers
8. What does the red poppy stand for?
Flanders Field !!!
9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Celebrate the war
10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Just for the English !!

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf07

11047

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf07

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	18

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

World War I

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

we remember those who died in WW1

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

yes

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

(those who died / those who make the poppies)
the army today.

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

the poppy fields where battles took place.

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

Good for young people in particular to know what happened.

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

Typically English, esp. the poppy song.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf08

10th/11

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf08

Nationality: <input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex: <input type="radio"/> male <input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation: STUDENTS	Age: 21

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WWI
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
THOSE WHO DIED FIGHTING FOR OUR COUNTRY
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
NOT ANY MORE
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
FAMILIES WHO LOST BREADWINNERS IN THE WAR.
- What does the red poppy stand for?
BLOOD THAT WAS SHED/LOST IN FIGHTING AND POPPY FIELD WHERE LAST SA BOMB WENT OFF.
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
RESPECT FOR WINNING AND FIGHTING FOR OUR COUNTRY.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
ENGLISH ONLY.

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf09

UN07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf09

Nationality: <input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex: <input type="radio"/> male <input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation: Student	Age: 19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

1st

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

People that died

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

No

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

The alive soldiers

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

The field people died in (Flanders)

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

?

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

ones that fought WITH THE BRITISH

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf10

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf10

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> British	Sex:	<input type="checkbox"/> male
	<input type="checkbox"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	19

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
WWI and WWII
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
those people that fought for and/or lost their lives during the war.
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
yes
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
war veterans
- What does the red poppy stand for?
those that died for us during the war.
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
we wouldn't be here if they had not fought - respect for those families/veterans.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Typically English (maybe Americans too).

Thank you very much for your help!!

😊

UN07-bf11

UN07

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07 - bf 11

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	Student	Age:	20

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War 1 & 2.
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
Those that lost their lives in WW1 & 2.
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
No
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
War Veterans.
- What does the red poppy stand for?
Those that died for our country.
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Was thanking those who fought as many not be here, -paying our respects
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
English, Americans

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf12

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07 - bf 12

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male <input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	STUDENT	Age:	19

1. Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?

WWI + WWII

2. Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?

yes no

3. Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?

yes no

4. What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?

EVERY SOLDIER WHO DIED

5. Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?

NO

6. Do you wear a poppy every November?

yes no

7. Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?

THE FAMILIES OF THE SOLDIERS

8. What does the red poppy stand for?

SOLDIERS, FLANDERS FIELD

9. What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?

PROUD OF THEM

10. Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)

OTHER NATIONS TOO → COMMONWEALTH

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf13

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf13

Nationality: <input checked="" type="radio"/> British <input type="radio"/> other: _____	Sex: <input type="radio"/> male <input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation: Student	Age: 18

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
World War I
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
All those who died during world war I
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
Yes ~ at church & at school in the past
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
Royal British Legion
- What does the red poppy stand for?
Poppies were the only flowers to survive in warfields
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
It is important that we do not forget the sacrifices made by others. It makes us appreciate peacetime & how lucky we are not to live in a world war.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
France, Belgium & Germany

Thank you very much for your help!!

UN07-bf14

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN HISTORY

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

UN07-bf 14

Nationality:	<input checked="" type="radio"/> British	Sex:	<input type="radio"/> male
	<input type="radio"/> other: _____		<input checked="" type="radio"/> female
Occupation:	STUDENT	Age:	19

- Which war would you associate most with the red poppy flower?
1st World War
- Did any of your great- / grandfathers participate in the First World War?
 yes no
- Did any of your grand- / fathers participate in the Second World War?
 yes no
- What is, in your opinion, actually being commemorated on Remembrance Sunday?
The people that died for Britain
- Do you participate in / watch any remembrance ceremonies on this very day?
no
- Do you wear a poppy every November?
 yes no
- Who are you supporting by 'buying' a poppy?
The veterans
- What does the red poppy stand for?
All the people who died - came from Flanders Field by McCrae. - in the worst fights in Flanders - the fields were full of poppies
- What point do you see in commemorating those who fell in the war?
Show we ^{are} ~~were~~ thankful to them and they didn't die in vain.
- Do you regard Remembrance Sunday as s.th. typically English or would you say it is a day for other nations, too? (if so, which ones)
Australia, UK, Canada, France, NZ and other countries who were / are in Commonwealth

Thank you very much for your help!!